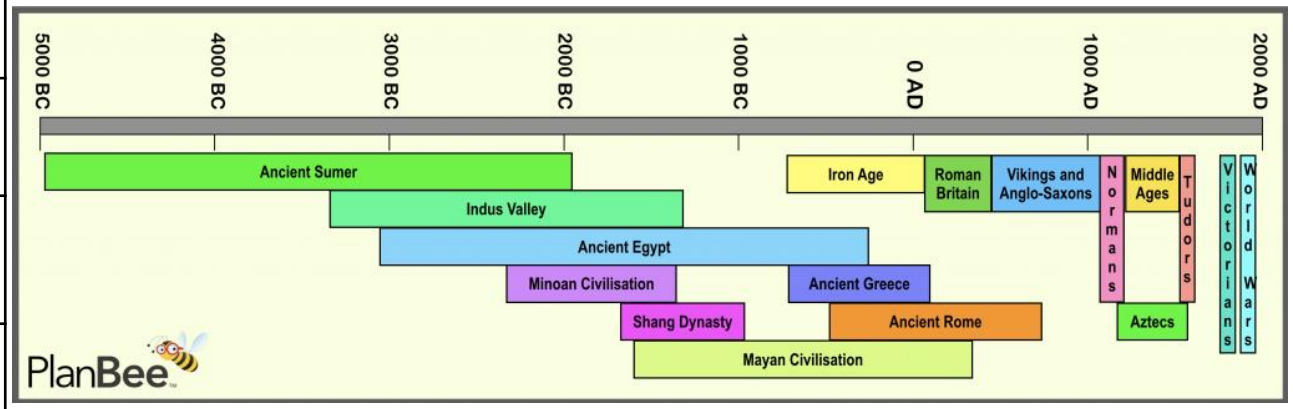
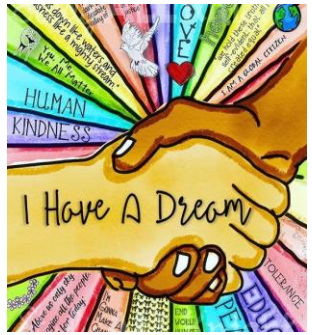
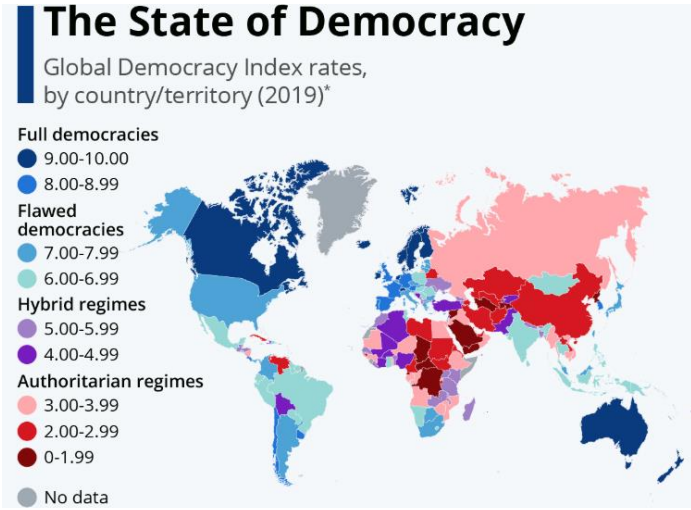
Darlinghurst Academy Year 6 Autumn 2 Has There Ever Been A Better Time To Live Here?

Vocabulary
chronology	the arrangement of events or dates in the order of their occurrence.
democracy	a system of government by the whole population or all the eligible members of a state, typically through elected representatives.
dictatorship	a country governed by a dictator
era	a long and distinct period of history.
law	the system of rules which a particular country or community recognizes as regulating the actions of its members and which it may enforce by the imposition of penalties.
monarch	a form of government with a monarch at the head.
offence	a breach of a law or rule; an illegal act.
republic	a state in which supreme power is held by the people and their elected representatives, and which has an elected or nominated president rather than a monarch.
revolution	a forcible overthrow of a government or social order, in favour of a new system.
treason	the crime of betraying one's country, especially by attempting to kill or overthrow the sovereign or government.







Ancient Greek States

Timeline of women's suffrage

1832 Mary Smith presents the first women's suffrage petition to Parliament. In the same year the Great Reform Act excludes women.

1866 Suffrage societies are formed after MP John Stuart Mill's suffrage petition is rejected by the commons.

1867 Mill petitions parliament again for women's suffrage but it fails.

1884 An amendment to the Third Reform Bill to include women is rejected.

1912 The Parliamentary Franchise (Women) Bill is introduced and defeated in the Commons.

1917 The Electoral Reform Bill passes giving the franchise to women over 30, over 21s with property or those married to householders.

1918 The Representation of the People Act passes in the Commons giving the franchise to women over 30.